Sir,

With reference to G.O.No.10373-81 L.B.331-09 dated 18th. May 1910, directing that lighting in Unions should cease from 1st. July 1910, I have the honor to state that lighting in the Sosale Union continued in the month of July 1910 also, as the question of its continuing permanently there, was under correspondence. A bill for Rs.11/- for having lit 16 lights at the rate of 11 annas per light for the month of July 1910, is here with submitted for favor of sanction. The charge may be met out of Rs.1072/- provided for in the current year's District Fund budget under C.X(5) "Lighting charges in Unions"
